Xpand Your Search with Bill of Material Exploded Views

Searching for the right axle parts just became a lot easier.

MeritorPartsXpress.com recently introduced over 30,000 exploded views for Meritor 14X axles, including a majority of on-highway 14X axles built within the last 10 years. In addition to the existing list format, production bill of materials (BOM) for 14X axles can now be viewed in our easy-to-use exploded diagram format, complete with forward, rear, and tandem axles.

To access production BOM exploded views for 14X axles, enter the part number or a descriptor in the search bar from the red navigation bar at the top of any page.
